

Bible Study Classes/Teachers

Teacher	Demographic	Description
Cody & Ashlee Shields: Collide Room 6	College students (18-25)	Cody and Ashlee Shields teach this class. While a very relational bunch and involved with our Thursday evening Collide service, they study the Bible and find friendship every Sunday. If you are college age, this is where you want to be.
David & Sally Gentili Room 15	20's (Post college) Early Career	This class is intended for young adults who have just graduated college and have just started their careers. This group loves spending time together outside of Sunday mornings. This group is all about building relationships.
Keith & Allison Stettler Room 14	20 Something Couples	This is a brand new exciting class for young couples to come be a part of. Whether you are dating, engaged, or married with or without kids, Keith and Allison can relate very well to these phases of life. Keith and Allison have been married for 7 years and have two young kids. The goal of this class will be to build relationships and do life together.
Josh Downs Worship Center	30 Somethings	Also known as the coffee class. They meet around the coffee bar and they move into the conference room to study the Bible in an unintimidating way. Then they help create an atmosphere of hospitality around the coffee for second service.
Lauren Fielding & Jamie Buckley Room 18	20-40 Moms	This is a brand new small group designed for single moms and for moms who come to church alone for a variety of different reasons. This is very engaging class that looks to connect with each other and to walk through life together.
Adam Peaden Room 13	20's-30's Something Couples	Adam and Lydia are living through the stages that young families deal with from pregnancy to sending their kids off to elementary school. Adam teaches from the Bible weekly and then seeks to lead a discussion applying the Scriptures to the issues that young families face.
Bill Shields Room 16	30's-50's Couples	Bill and Lynette have raised two fine boys who both are now married and on their own. If you are looking for someone to encourage you with Scripture, who has raised a family and is not bashful about candidly sharing life experiences in a funny and meaningful way, you should give this class a try.
Kris Serian Room 7	Ladies (30's – 50's)	This small group of ladies really enjoys their time with Kris and her love for the Bible. Kris cares for them and is a solid Bible teacher.
Jeff Frachiseur Room 2	Couples with older elementary to college aged children (40's-50's)	Jeff and Kelly have two children. Ansley is a student at University of Alabama and Adam is a high school student. Their family reflects most that are in this class. Their kids keep them busy but they enjoy looking to Scripture together as they stay focused on launching their teenage and college children into adulthood.

Aaron Lovett Room 1	Couples with teenagers through empty nesters (30's – 50's)	Aaron and Jacquie have navigated this phase of life with their 4 children and numerous grandchildren. Those experiences and his nearly 30 years in business will provide great sources for application of Bible teaching as they dig into Scripture verse by verse.
Monte Cooper Room 12	Couples with high schoolers through empty nesters (40's – 50's)	Monte is a veteran, who continues to train future pilots at Tyndall. He and Martha Jo are now enjoying their grandchildren.
Frank & Susan Downs Room 9	Adults with special needs	We are so blessed to have several people including Susan Downs, who have the heart of God to love and encourage this very special group of adults. This group looks forward to church every Sunday, they have strong faith, and they love to sing during worship.
Dixie Alderson Room 5	Ladies in a variety of life stages	Dixie keeps things lively and real as they make application for Bible truth. And she makes great coffee!
Ken Caldwell Room 8	Couples with empty nests and/or grandchildren	Ken is an avid golfer, who in his retirement is enjoying God's Word, golf, and his grandkids. Ken and Brenda are both heavily involved in the music ministry.
Jeff Patton Room 11	Couples who are at/near retirement with grandchildren	This class studies the Bible a book at a time. Jeff has a strong military background and a love for history that is reflected in his teaching. Many of those in this class deal with issues like caring for aging parents and looking toward retirement and all that comes with it.
Art Zediker Room 3	Mixed adults in a variety of life stages (mid 50's – 70's)	Art and Dietra love people and love God's Word. The people in the class reflect their heart.
Larry DeMoss Room 17	Adults in a variety of life stages (mid 50's – early 70's)	Larry has pastored numerous churches and is an excellent Bible teacher. His years in ministry will provide him a strong platform to give care and leadership to this class.
James Commander Room 4	55+ Adults	James and Irene will be leading this class. They will study the book of James and I can assure you they will have a fun time as they learn from the Bible together. James' wit and sense of humor combined with a love for the Lord, along with Mrs. Irene's gentle touch of class, will create a wonderful Bible study atmosphere.
John Byrne Room 10	Senior adults, widows & widowers	This is a fun and lively bunch! John is a good teacher and excels in leading his class to care for one another.
