Brent & Kendall Patrick: Collide Room 9 8:15 am	College students (18-25)	This is a very relational bunch who is involved with our Thursday night Collide service. They study the Bible and find friendships every Sunday. If you are college age, this is where you want to be.
Keith & Allison Stettler Room 12 9:15 am	20's-30's Couples	This is an exciting class for young couples to come be a part of. Whether you are dating, engaged, or married, with or without kids, Keith and Allison can relate very well to these phases of life. Keith and Allison have been married for 7 years and have two young kids. The goal of this class is to build relationships and do life together.
Coffee Class Kitchen 9:15 am	30-Somethings	This class meets around the coffee bar then moves into the conference room to study the Bible in an unintimidating way. After Bible study, they help create an atmosphere of hospitality around the coffee bar for second service.
Adam Peaden Room 16 8:15 am	30's-40's Couples	This class is designed to relate to parents who have kids starting, or have children already in elementary school. Adam teaches from the Bible weekly and then seeks to lead a discussion applying the Scriptures to the issues that young families face.
Dustin Stephenson Room 8 9:15 am	30's-40's Adults	This small group is designed for parents with middle schoolers. Dustin is currently serving as a Circuit Judge. He and his wife Lorrie have two High School boys, and, have been through the middle school years. They know about the ups and downs that come with being middle school parents. Their goal is to connect families walking through this phase of life.
Bill Shields Room 9 9:15 am	30's-50's Adults	Bill and Lynette have raised two fine boys who are both married and on their own. If you are looking for someone to encourage you with Scripture, who has raised a family and is not bashful about candidly sharing life experiences in a funny and meaningful way, you should give this class a try.
Kris Serian Room 12 9:15 am	30's-50's Ladies	This small group of ladies really enjoys their time with Kris and her love for the Bible. Kris cares for them and is a solid Bible teacher.
Dr. Jerome Barnes Room 11 8:15 am	Adults with older high school to college aged children (40's-50's)	This class is designed to help adults know how to invest in their children and get them ready for the next phase of life. Together, they look at the Scriptures and learn biblical principles to help launch their teenage and college students into adulthood.
Dale Marks Room 10 8:15 am	Couples with high school students through empty nesters	The goal for this class is to invest in adults who are getting ready to start a new chapter - life as empty nesters. Empty nesting can be a tough transition for many families, so this class intends to connect couples to build relationships, making it is easier to navigate through this phase of life.
